

Cataract Cannot Be Cured

LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they reach the seat of the disease, are a local disease, greatly improved by constitutional conditions, and prior to cure if you must take any medicine, take it internally and not externally. HALL'S CATARACT MEDICINE is taken internally and acts directly on the mucous surfaces of the eye. The perfect combination of ingredients in Hall's Catarrh Medicine is what produces such wonderful results in cataract conditions. And interest is what makes dollars grow—safely.

Of course, if you have saved money, you have it on interest—it not in good securities, then certainly in the bank.

Surely you are not one of those who use shot bags, stockings, tin cans and pots as depositories. If you are, you'll eventually be sorry.

It's far better to be safe than sorry.

We pay 4 per cent interest—100 per cent SAFETY.

Mr. H. C. Mann
The home of R. C. Mann was clothed in sorrow by the death of his wife, whose patient suffering ceased at 11 o'clock Friday morning.

Mrs. Mann, who was one of Appomattox's most loved christian women, had been confined to her bed since summer. It was her abiding faith and confident purpose which bore her up to the last.

Beloved by all who knew her and attended to the end by these loved ones, all human aid was given her.

A member of the Methodist church since childhood, her pleasing and loving presence was always an inspiration in furthering its efforts.

With her in her long days of illness were her mother, Mrs. M. H. Simms, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Mann, who were constantly giving their loving efforts for recovery.

Neighbors and friends were ever thoughtful in doing what they could to help lessen their anxieties.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. W. G. Bates, Jr., pastor Memorial Methodist church were held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial was made in the Simms' family cemetery on the farm of the mother of deceased.

Surviving Mrs. Mann are: her husband, R. C. Mann, son, Ryland, mother, Mrs. M. H. Simms, sister, Mrs. C. J. Manning, Ferguson, and brother, B. C. Simms, all residents of Appomattox county.

Little Brna Woodriffs was taken to Lynchburg Hospital last week where she underwent a very serious operation which was pronounced blood-poison of the leg. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Everett Ferguson, Misses Mattie Ferguson, and Laura Nash were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin during the holidays.

Mr. W. T. Nash is walking around very proud, it's a boy. Messrs. Schuyler, Abbott and David Marshall, of West Va., were visiting home folks Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Overton and children, of Brookneal, Va., Mary Doug Marshall, of Prince Edward, and Mr. John Marshall, of Lynchburg, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Marshall, Xmas.

Mrs. Thos. Inge accompanied by her two daughters, Misses Della and Gladys, visited her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Nash, during the holidays.

Miss Eunice Woodson, of Lynchburg, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Woodson.

Miss Fannie Ford and Mr. Lawrence Laughlin, of Lynchburg, were married Xmas day. They were visitors at the home of the former parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford, during the holidays.

Miss Lelia Jones and Mr. Edward Harris, of Charlotte county, were married Xmas. We wish these two couples much happiness and prosperity.

The writer wishes to extend her most sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. R. C. Mann, who died last week and was buried at her old home place Saturday, in the presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives. We know this good woman will be missed, she has taught us a lesson of patience and everyone who knew her loved her.

Much success to the Times-Virginian.

Veru
The Xmas days have gone and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very much. I heard several say they were sorry Xmas was over.

We are having some very pretty weather for January. Mr. James Robertson spent ten days with his home people, after which he left for Richmond and other points before returning to his work in Newport News.

Mr. Jenson Carter is visiting home people here. Mr. J. R. Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carter, is at home now on the sick list.

Miss Pearl Carter and father are visiting in Lynchburg.

Mr. Homer Reynolds, after spending a few days with home people returned to his position in Roanoke.

Miss Edna Megginson and sister, Mrs. Alice Grow, are visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Garrett are improving slowly.

Miss Helen Morris has been very sick during the last few days. We hope to hear of her early recovery.

Mr. Rol Abbott is improving after a long illness.

Miss Olyer Abbott, after spending the holidays at home has returned to her school at Hollywood.

Falling River
Dear Editor,
As the holidays are over with try and give you a few sketches of what happened.

O. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald and children, of Roanoke, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Poe, also Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foster and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foster and children, of Morris Church, Campbell, Co. It had been some time since all were all together and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Dinner was served with nice large turkey, ham and desserts. Monday Messrs. H. B. Fitzgerald, J. R. Poe, B. C. Poe went hunting and killed several birds and rabbits Tuesday Mr. Smith, superintendent of Southern Express, Lynchburg, Va., came down and joined in the hunt. Mr. H. B. Fitzgerald was accidentally shot by Mosby Poe in the temple but nothing serious.

Wednesday the hunting party motored to the home of G. W. Foster, near Morris Church, where Henry Foster, R. P. Foster, G. W. Foster and Willard Brewer joined in the hunt and they captured four large wild turkeys and large quantity of birds and rabbits. The hunting party returned Friday night to Mr. R. B. Poe's with three large wild turkeys and they all had plenty of hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fitzgerald left Saturday for their home in Roanoke.

Mr. D. D. Poe left Saturday for Hopewell, Va., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. J. R. Brewer.

Best wishes to the Times.

Reflected Glory.
